

MISS ME, BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me ,

I want no rites in gloom filled room

Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little - but not for long and not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love that once we shared.

Miss me, but let me go.

For this is the journey that we must all take,

and each must go alone.

*It's all a part of the master plan,
a step on the road to home.*

When you are lonely and sick at heart,

Go to the friends we know,

Laugh at all the things we used to do.

Miss me, but let me go

WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU

Well I must leave you for a little while,

please do not grieve or shed wild tears

and hug your sorrow to you through the years,

But start out bravely with a gallant smile;

and for my sake and in my name,

Live on and do our things the same.

Feed not your loneliness on empty days,

but fill each waking hour in useful ways,

Reach out your hand in comfort and cheer

And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near,

And never, never be afraid to die,

For I am waiting for you in the sky.

OBITUARY

Katherine Jennings Doss was born March 19, 1925 on the family farm in Camp Hill, AL. She was the sixth of nine children to Daniel and Ada Jennings. At an early age she became a member of Sardis Baptist Church.

Katherine left the farm in 1942 to head north as a young woman during the Great Migration. She traveled through Ohio but eventually made Chicago home. There she gave birth to her only child Ronald "RJ" Jennings in 1956.

She later married the late Emmette Doss and enjoyed her years with him in Chicago. Although Chicago was home, she always followed her heart and returned to Camp Hill where she spent her final years.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Emmette, her parents and her siblings Edda Dee, Loomis, Beatrice, Daniel and Hattie Belle,.

She is survived by her son, Ronald "RJ" (Stacy) and her grandson Daniel Jennings of Woodside, CA; her siblings Velma Walker of Lafayette, AL, Alfred (Mary) Jennings, Lanett, AL and Willean (Tommy) Jefferson of Juliette, GA and a host of nieces and nephews.

Katherine was a force of nature who spoke her mind and will be missed by us all.
