Obituary

James Franklin (“Coot”) Ware was born November 2, 1942 in Camp Hill, Alabama to the late Milton Ware and Mildred Brummitt Ware. James was the middle of five (5) children from this union. The Lord called him to rest July 21, 2016 at East Alabama Medical Center in Opelika, Alabama.

James was a graduate of Edward Bell High School Class of 1960. He went on to graduate from Alabama State University School of Business in 1965. During his time at Alabama State, he became a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. He was called to military service in 1967, where he served proudly in the Army during the Vietnam War. James worked at the Opelika Tire Plant for over 30 years where he was a Shift Supervisor before retiring. He confessed Christ at an early age at Beulah #2 Baptist Church, Camp Hill, Alabama where he served as a faithful deacon under the leadership of the late Reverend H.E. Gibson and Reverend Jerry Gibson.

James was married in holy matrimony to Marie Moss Ware and to this union two children were born. He remained a faithful husband until her death on August 4, 2004. He is survived by his loving wife, Doris Spencer Ware and to this union he gained two additional children.

James leaves a legacy of love to his family: one son, Ramon (Elaine) Ware, San Jose, CA; three daughters, Tonja Turner, Charlotte, NC, Nancy Lacy, Dayton, OH, Monica (Charles) Reese, Atlanta, GA; eleven grandchildren, Simone Ware, Andre Ware, Joshua Turner, Desiree Porter, Julie LePage, William LePage Jr, Katherine LePage, Jason Lacy, Eric Lacy, Jessica Reese, and Charles Reese III; one great grandchild, Caroline Porter; three brothers, Milton (Audrey) Ware, Shorter, AL, Morris (Sarah) Ware, Auburn, AL, Gregory (Sharon) Ware, Camp Hill, AL; one sister, Betty (Silas) Christian, Atlanta, GA; a special cousin/sister, Katischa (Paul) McLean, Cameron, NC; a special aunt/sister, Bernice Brown, Charlotte, NC and a host of nieces and nephews.

James (Coot) Ware was a loveable, faithful and devoted husband, father, brother, uncle, deacon. He lived his life by example and always willing to offer a hand to anyone that needed help. He was loved and will be missed tremendously.
