OBITUARY

Life is a beautiful gift from our Creator above. Doris Bailey lived a full life by giving so much of her love. The love she gave cannot be measured. The strength she possessed cannot be forgotten. The wisdom she shared could never be found in any book. The beauty she radiated cannot be surpassed. For 86 years, God granted her life and each day with every effort, she gave her best from deep within.

Ms. Doris Bailey, daughter of the late Ester McCoy and Curtis Bailey, was born September 27, 1929 in Camp Hill, AL. On September 12, 2016 at Lake Martin Community Hospital when the Master called, Doris answered and slipped away to be with the Lord to have eternal rest.

At an early age, she accepted Christ in her life and has been a faithful member of Lee Chapel A.M.E. Church in Auburn for many years. She served in the choir, Missionary Stewardess and kitchen committee. She served faithfully there until her health declined.

Doris leaves to cherish her memory: two sisters, Pearl Thompson and Winnie Ruth McCoy both of Camp Hill, AL; five sons, Jessie Bailey of Auburn, AL, Corneal (Dorothy) Bailey of Lithonia, Ga, Willie (Gwendolyn) Bailey of Lawrenceville, Ga, Paul (Angela) Bailey of Tuskegee, AL, and Rodney Bailey of Stockbridge, and a host of grandchildren, nieces, great-nieces, great nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“You’re Always at my Side”

Your love is still my guide,

And though we cannot see you,

You’re always at my side.

From your Sons

“When Life is Done”

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one,

I'd like to leave an after-glow of smiles when life is done

I'd like to leave an echo, whispering softly down the ways.

Of happy times and laughing times And bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun,

Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.
