OBITUARY

Mrs. Myra Hicks was born on January 17, 1929 to the late Albert Webb and Lizzie Hill in Chambers County, AL. She was the second born of twelve children. She confessed Christ at an early age and became a member of New Canaan Baptist Church in Camp Hill, AL.

On April 24, 1943, Myra united with Mr. J.D. Hicks in holy matrimony. She then joined Centerview Baptist Church in Camp Hill, AL. To this union, ten children were born. They were parted by his death after fifty years of marriage.

Mrs. Myra Hicks was known for the care she provided for her husband and her children. She was a talented homemaker, a skilled seamstress, and an exceptional baker. She was also known for simply loving everybody. It was the type of love that reached beyond her home to the rest of her family and to the community. This was especially seen during the time she was a caregiver to her grandmother, Margaret Hill.

At her passing, Mrs. Hicks was the oldest member of the Centerview Baptist Church. She was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, and four of her children, Bobby Hicks, William H. Hicks, Roger Hicks, and Gregory Hicks.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories: six children, Eddie Ruth (Leroy) Richardson of Alexander City, AL, Lillie Hicks and Joann (Willie) Bryant both of Camp Hill, AL, Carolyn Hicks of Los Angeles, CA, Pauline Ware of Opelika, AL and Ricky (Joann) Hicks of Camp Hill, AL; two siblings, Carl Webb of San Bernardino, CA and Elaine Soils of San Diego, CA, two sisters-in-law, Dennie Mae Hicks of Apopka, FL and Dottie Webb of Las Vegas, NV; one daughter-in-law, Ditz Hicks of Lanett, AL; a devoted nephew and family, Willie, Donna, and Angela Webb of Columbus, GA; four devoted cousins, Latim Williams of Killeen, TX, John Walton of Detroit, MI, and Alford and Annette Martin of Atlanta, GA; two special and devoted friends, Mary Inez Taylor and Marie Johnson both of Camp Hill, AL. Her legacy includes twenty-six grandchildren, forty-six great grandchildren, eight great-great grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews as well as other family and friends.

~ You Will Be Sorely Missed ~

We love you dear mother with all our hearts.

We know we'll meet again one day.

Although we had to part, you're gone but not forgotten;

We will always hold you near.

So forgive us if we stop a moment to wipe away a tear.

You've touched our hearts in such a special way

We rejoice in knowing that you're okay.

For in our Father's house, there is no sickness or pain

Yes, we rejoice in knowing.

We will not say good-bye, but simply "farewell"

until we meet around God's throne, where we will forever dwell.
