OBITUARY

Mrs. Mae F. Hughes, daughter of the late Enoch and Ina (Heard) Foreman, was born on July 28, 1929 in Tallapoosa County, AL.

After confessing Christ at an early age, she united with the Murray Chapel AME Zion Church in Camp Hill, AL where she remained a faithful member until she departed this life on Sunday, November 18, 2018.

As a child, she attended Tallapoosa County Training School in Camp Hill, AL. Following her graduation, she attended and graduated from Alabama State College in Montgomery, AL with a Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education.

Soon after graduation, her teaching career started in Alexander City, AL at Dairy Ann School for Colored Children. She then taught for several years at Edward Bell School in Camp Hill, AL. After moving away from Camp Hill, she obtained her Master's degree and continued her career in the Warner Robbins school system in Warner Robbins, GA where she remained until her retirement.

Having been preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, and her darling husband, Joe, she leaves to mourn her passing and cherish her memories: two sisters, Nora Milner of Camp Hill, AL and Sadie Harper of Albany, NY; two nephews, James "Buster" (Eunice) Cox of Athens, AL, and Gary Foreman; four nieces, Joycie Burrell of Hyattsville, MD, Freda (Taft) Ware of Fairburn, GA, Betty Harper and Bridgette (Dennis) Miller both of Schenectady, NY; a dear and devoted brother - in - law, James F. Hughes of Camp Hill, AL, a brother - in - law, Toney (Mildretta) Hughes of Bloomfield Hills, MI; two sisters - in - law, Mary (Larry) Prince of Leesburg, FL and Ruthie (Jonathan) Clark of Northfield, MI.

Mrs. Hughes also leaves to mourn a host of other loving family members and friends.
