Obituary

Lillie Mae Hunter was born December 9, 1943 in Tallapoosa County to the late John J. and Gertrude Hunter. She was a beautiful child and on seeing her everyone fell in love with her. On the evening of March 20, 2017, this beautiful gift passed from this life to the next. Lillie Mae was loving known as “Little Momma” by her family and friends. She was raised in Camp Hill and was a member of Mt. Lovely Baptist Church. Little Momma also graduated from Edward Bell High School in Camp Hill. After graduation, she set her sights on the “Big Apple” and headed for New York. She settled in Jamaica, New York where she lived and worked for over fifty years.

When her health began to suffer, Little Momma developed a strong desire to leave the “Big Apple” and return closer to her roots. She moved to Fayetteville, GA to be near her loving and caring nephew, Carleton.

Little Momma was one of a kind. She was feisty, lively, fast talking and had a smile that would brighten any day. The people who knew her best always said that once you got to know Little Momma you would see “her heart was all bark and no bite” and could keep you laughing for hours.

Little Momma leaves to cherish her memory, one brother: John J. (Patsy) Hunter, Mattapan, MA; three nephews: Carleton E. Martin, Fayetteville, GA, Vincent C. Martin, Montgomery, and Martinies Martin, San Francisco, CA; two nieces: Peggie Martin, North Olmsted, OH
