“My departure is at hand. I am offered up as a drink offering;
I have finished my course.”

Dea. Jim Green Joiner was born January 27, 1944 to the parentage of the late Bob and Christine Joiner. Jim was a baptized believer and member of Peace and Goodwill Baptist Church where he was a part of the Deacon board and Usher board. Jim graduated from Randolph County Training School and received a certificate from Opelika Technical School as a welder and electrician. He served in the United States Army and was honorably discharged.

He was married to Roxie Pinkard on September 28, 1971 and their home was blessed with four children. This home also fostered several children during the course of many years.

Jim departed this life on February 2, 2017 in Birmingham, AL after confounding the medical personnel since December 22, 2016 clearly sending the message that “it’s not over until God says it’s over!”

Jim will always be remembered for his love of sports, traveling, watching westerns and different judge shows, discussing politics, and attending the RCTS Reunions.

Jim’s varied employment history included West Point Pepperell & Candlewick Yarns. He also served as a board member of ECHO| Community Outreach Services, INC.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents and three siblings, Justice Joiner, Lera Phillips, and Robert Joiner. He will always be cherished in the heart of his devoted and faithful wife, Mrs. Roxie P. Joiner.

Children: Duon Joiner, Crystal Joiner, Demetrica (Jonathan) Harrison, & Joci Taylor-Wright.

God Children: Tameka McLain, LaTonya Wright, Justin Lockhart, Davaion Blakes, Brandon Blakes, Christopher Owensby Jr. and Tyrik Treadwell.

Jim is also survived by several nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

From your Children

I Thought of You with Love Today

I thought of you with love today,
But that is nothing new.

I thought about you yesterday,
And days before that too.

I think of you in silence,
I often speak your name.

All I have are memories
And a picture in a frame.

Your memory is a keepsake,
With which I'll never part.

God has you in his keeping
I have you in my heart.

THE LEGACY OF JIM JOINER

"UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN"

Those special memories of you
Will always bring a smile
If only I could have you back
For just a little while
Then we could sit and talk again
Just like we used to do
You always meant so very much
And always will do too
The fact that you're no longer here
Will always cause me pain
But you're forever in my heart
Until we meet again.

*Your Loving Wife
Mrs. Roxie Joiner*
