Reverend Bernard Harris, Officiating

Mrs. Evelyn Combs Jones

Mrs. Evelyn Juanita Combs Jones was born in Camp Hill, AL, on October 17, 1921, to Mrs. Annie Frank Combs and Mr. Willie Combs. She departed this life April 3, 2016, at her long time residence.

She was raised along with her 6 siblings on the Combs farm in Camp Hill. She attended High School at Tallapoosa County Training School and received her Bachelor of Science Degree from the State Teacher's College (now Alabama State University) in 1945. She continued her studies and received a Bachelor of Science degree in Library Science from Atlanta University (now Clark Atlanta University), in 1949, and later returned to Alabama State to obtain her Master's degree in Education in 1955.

She professed her belief in Christ at an early age and was a faithful member of Mount Lovely Baptist Church in Camp Hill, AL, for several years; where she taught Sunday School and served as a Deacon's Wife.

She worked in the Tallapoosa County School System for over 30 years. She served as a teacher, librarian, and Supervisor of Instruction, ultimately leading to her election to the Tallapoosa County School Board.

She was a member of the Alabama Teacher's Association, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., and Order of the Eastern Star.

She was preceded in death by her husband Deacon Casby Jones. She leaves to cherish her memory her son, Barney Alvis Harris of Camp Hill, AL; stepdaughters Sonja Ware of Camp Hill, AL and Juanita Johnson of Ohio; Vivian Harris of Nashville, TN; grandchildren Tya Harris (Ayokunle Spencer) of Tampa, FL and Rashon Harris of Nashville, TN; sister Annie Jean Goodson (Adolph) of Washington, DC; aunts Zora Turner of Tuskegee, AL and Mae Marshall of Columbus, GA; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.
