A Well Spent Life

It is doubly sweet at the close of a well spent life to turn one's sunset and quietly sink into the rest that knows no waking except in the presence of God. Such was the case of Mary Rose Lockhart, who answered the call of her Master on Sunday June 9, 2019. Death to the righteous is like the lowering clouds that shut out the sun at noon day. It has a bright side and a silver lining. Death to Christian's is moving out of this dark world into eternal daylight.

Amazing Grace

Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch like me....
I once was lost but now am found,
Was blind, but now, I see.
T'was Grace that taught...
my heart to fear.
And Grace, my fears relieved.
How precious did that Grace appear...
the hour I first believed.
Through many dangers,
toils and snares...
we have already come.
T'was Grace that brought us safe thus far...
and Grace will lead us home.

Mrs. Mary Rose Lockhart

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while -
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years,
but start out bravely with gallant smile;
And for my sake And in my name
Live on and do all things the same,
Feed not your loneliness on empty days
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and cheer

And I in turn will comfort you
And hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die, for I am waiting for you in the sky.
