Obituary

Death is a golden key that opens eternity. Sampson, with his strength; Solomon, with his wisdom; Alexander, with his victories; Caesar, with his triumphs; and Croesus, with his riches were not able to avoid death. Paul said, "I die daily." Let us say so with him, because every day we are dying until the last of days come.

Mrs. Shaye Benzell Cox Mason was born December 28, 1951 to the late Martha Louise Barrow Cox and Hubert Cox.

Mrs. Mason was married to the late Richard D. Mason until his passing on November 21, 2015.

In days of good health, Mrs. Shaye Mason was a faithful and dedicated cashier at ABC Stores in Alabama for 26 years.

Mrs. Mason attended Mitchell Spring United Methodist Church.

However, the time came when her labors were ended, and God called her to her rest and reward. Mrs. Shaye Mason departed this life on October 4, 2020 at the Compassus Auburn Bethany House in Auburn, AL.

Mrs. Mason was preceded in death by her parents and her husband.

Mrs. Mason is survived by her loving siblings, including two sisters: Brenda J. Cox of Cleveland, OH and Linda Brooks of Atlanta, GA; and one brother: Hillmon Brooks Sr. of Lanett, AL, and a host of adored nieces, nephews, other caring relatives and special friends.

She is gone, but she will never be forgotten by her family and friends.

A Psalm of Life

Tell me not in mournful numbers
Life is but an empty dream!
For the soul is dead that slumbers,
And things are not what they seem

Life is real, life in earnest,
And the grave is not its goal;
Dust thou art to dust returnest,
Was not spoken of the soul.
