THAT

That is the thing
That made you run away.
That is also the thing
That made you want to pray
That almost blew your mind
That almost took you out.
Because of that you got a new dance...
A brand new shout
That started out as something bad But Jesus turned it around for your good...
That made you tell the devil
"oh ...I wish you would"
That can be anything
That will cause you to go out on a limb Jesus allowed that That...
So that you would rely on him

For My Big Brother

Its been days now Since we last seen him smile... as the days went on without him near we swallowed our tears and walked with the pain we fell down to our knees
But we got back up we thought we walked as far as we could without him around we tried and tried to move on we cried for him many times before now its just time to let go And be on our own Things may have changed
But that is what he would want us to do change and move on without him we will miss him greatly but its just the way life is with of without him here

My Harpo....

Nobody can take away my memories
No words can ease my pain
Yet there's a place within my heart where you will always remain.
They say "it'll be okay" and "it'll be alright,"
But that's not what I want to hear,
The timing isn't right.
No time for me is a suitable time to ever say goodbye
Although death is a part of life, and we all have to die.
Still ever picture is a story
Every memory is a tear
I find myself saying, "I wish Harpo was here"
To some your are Tim
To others you are Neal
But to me you are my Harpo....
So I'm praying to Jesus to help me, Because I have to let you go.....
